[Client name]
[Client address]

Dear [Client]:

Our office was made aware of an incident involving your personal information where your lab slip was inadvertently mailed to another client. The client who received the document in error has returned it. The personal information on the lab slip included your name, Social Security Number and date of birth. Due to the sensitive nature of the information, we have taken steps to protect your accounts from unauthorized activity. This includes instructing our service associates to use extra caution when verifying callers and to confirm the signature on written requests related to your accounts.

As an additional precaution, Ameriprise Financial is providing you an opportunity to enroll in an independently operated credit monitoring program for one year at no expense to you. This program is administered by Equifax, one of the three national credit reporting agencies. This service will provide you with an online solution which provides weekly credit monitoring of your Equifax credit file and one copy of your Equifax Credit Report™. The last page of this letter details out the promotional code you need to use to enroll for one free year of coverage, and enrollment instructions.

There are also actions you can take to help protect against the potential misuse of your personal information such as:

- Thoroughly review your account statements and transaction confirmations.
- Review any solicitations you receive in the near future.
- Closely monitor all of your personal accounts (e.g. checking and savings, credit cards, etc) to make sure there is no unauthorized activity.
- Read the enclosed educational brochure which provides resources and measures to help protect against identity theft.
- Be vigilant if you receive a call from someone who claims to represent RiverSource. If you have any doubts about the caller, hang up and call your advisor to verify the validity of the call.

In the event that you experience fraud or theft as a direct result of this situation, please call the Ameriprise Financial Suspicious Activity Hotline immediately at (800) 862-7919, Ext. 11208 to speak with a fraud investigator.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Steve Tizzano at (612) 678-5390. Please accept my sincere apology regarding this situation and any inconvenience it may cause you.

Sincerely,

Denette Schrom

Directions for placing a Fraud Alert

A fraud alert is a consumer statement added to your credit report. This statement alerts creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report as well as requests that they contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. Once the fraud alert is added to your credit report, all creditors should contact you prior to establishing any account in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit file, visit: www.fraudalerts.equifax.com or you may contact the Equifax auto fraud line at 1-877-478-7625, and follow the simple prompts. Once the fraud alert has been placed with Equifax, a notification will be sent to the other two credit reporting agencies, Experian and Trans Union, on your behalf.

† Identity Fraud Expense Reimbursement Master Policy underwritten by Travelers Casualty and Surety Company of America and its property casualty affiliates, Hartford, CT 06183. Coverage for all claims or losses depends on actual policy provisions. Availability of coverage can depend on our underwriting qualifications and state regulations. What is Identity Theft?

Identity theft is a serious crime. It can disrupt your finances, credit history, and reputation, and take time, money, and patience to resolve. Identity theft happens when someone steals your personal information and uses it without your permission.

Identity thieves might:

- go through trash cans and dumpsters, stealing bills and documents that have sensitive information.
- work for businesses, medical offices, or government agencies, and steal personal information on the job.
- misuse the name of a legitimate business, and call or send emails that trick you into revealing personal information.
- pretend to offer a job, a loan, or an apartment, and ask you to send personal information to “qualify.”
- steal your wallet, purse, backpack, or mail, and remove your credit cards, driver’s license, passport, health insurance card, and other items that show personal information.

How to Protect Your Information

- Read your credit reports. You have a right to a free credit report every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. Order all three reports at once, or order one report every four months. To order, go to annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228.
- Read your bank, credit card, and account statements, and the explanation of medical benefits from your health plan. If a statement has mistakes or doesn’t come on time, contact the business.
- Shred all documents that show personal, financial, and medical information before you throw them away.
- Don’t respond to email, text, and phone messages that ask for personal information. Legitimate companies don’t ask for information this way. Delete the messages.
- Create passwords that mix letters, numbers, and special characters. Don’t use the same password for more than one account.
- If you shop or bank online, use websites that protect your financial information with encryption. An encrypted site has “https” at the beginning of the web address; “s” is for secure.
- If you use a public wireless network, don’t send information to any website that isn’t fully encrypted.
- Use anti-virus and anti-spyware software, and a firewall on your computer.
- Set your computer’s operating system, web browser, and security system to update automatically.

If Your Identity is Stolen...

1 Flag Your Credit Reports

Call one of the nationwide credit reporting companies, and ask for a fraud alert on your credit report. The company you call must contact the other two so they can put fraud alerts on your files. An initial fraud alert is good for 90 days.

Equifax 1-800-525-6285

Experian 1-888-397-3742

TransUnion 1-800-680-7289

2 Order Your Credit Reports

Each company’s credit report about you is slightly different, so order a report from each company. When you order, you must answer some questions to prove your identity. Read your reports carefully to see if the information is correct. If you see mistakes or signs of fraud, contact the credit reporting company.

3 Create an Identity Theft Report

An Identity Theft Report can help you get fraudulent information removed from your credit report, stop a company from collecting debts caused by identity theft, and get information about accounts a thief opened in your name. To create an Identity Theft Report:

- file a complaint with the FTC at ftc.gov/complaint or 1-877-438-4338; TTY: 1-866-653-4261. Your completed complaint is called an FTC Affidavit.
- take your FTC Affidavit to your local police, or to the police where the theft occurred, and file a police report. Get a copy of the police report.

The two documents comprise an Identity Theft Report.
